

Re:Verse Literary Conference & Festival 2008

Request For Proposals

The Re:Verse Literary Conference & Festival provides a platform for literature-based creative thinking and knowledge sharing. Each year we invite educators, community and arts organizations, and artists to participate. Re:Verse is presented by The Literary Freedom Project, a 501(c)3 tax-exempt not-for-profit arts organization that supports the literary arts through education, creative thinking, and new media.

The Re:Verse Literary Conference & Festival invites proposals for workshops focused on the literary arts, literacy, and reading comprehension, and how educators can incorporate these subjects to increase the adoption of reading as a tool for understanding of culture, history, and social studies.

Deadline is September 17, 2008. Email proposals to Felicia Pride.
felicia@mosaicmagazine.org

The Re:Verse Literary Conference & Festival
*CALL FOR WORKSHOP PROPOSALS***

Re:Verse Literary Conference & Festival calls for educators to foster the role literature plays in the lives of students and youth. The conference seeks to rebuild the audience for literature as a means for understanding culture, history, and social studies. Now in its fourth year, the Re:Verse Conference celebrates the diversity of thought literature fosters.

Date: Saturday, October 25, 2008

Location: (tbd), Bronx, NY

Please title your workshop and include brief biographical information for each facilitator, along with a one paragraph description of your workshop: what are the questions you wish to explore, why is this conversation timely and necessary at this time –how will this workshop further the goals of the Re:Verse Conference? How are you uniquely qualified to lead a workshop on your proposed topic?

We have a strong interest in literary-curriculum adoption so please indicate how you will involve participants in the discussion.

- Each applicant is limited to three proposals.
- An honorarium of $200.00 is available for each workshop facilitator.

Email proposals in the body of an email to: felicia@mosaicmagazine.org by September 17, 2008. Please include full contact information for yourself. Just copy the questions into an email and paste your answers in. Please be sure to save a copy of your proposal, as emails do sometimes go astray. We will acknowledge receipt of your proposal within 24 hours.

Questions? Email us at felicia@mosaicmagazine.org. We look forward to reading your proposal.

Felicia Pride
Re:Verse Literary Conference & Festival
314 West 231 St
Bronx, NY 10463
felicia@mosaicmagazine.org
www.reversefestival.org

Reverse Festival 2008

Workshop Title:

Facilitator Name(s):

Email Address:

Phone:

1. One-paragraph bio.
2. Describe in 250 words or less the focus of your workshop.
3. Describe your method for involving festival participants in the workshop.
4. List equipment needed to present your workshop (i.e. microphones, projectors, computers).
5. If available, include attachments or links to previous work that demonstrates knowledge of subject matter

Email: felicia@mosaicmagazine.org